WANTED FOR: ASSAULT ON A PEACE OFFICER
DATE OF CRIME: APRIL 9, 2005
CRIME LOCATION: MECCA

Near midnight in April of 2005, two California Highway Patrol officers were on patrol near Mecca. The officers observed a vehicle swerving on the road and suspected the driver may be under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance. The officers conducted a traffic stop and the vehicle slowed to a stop near the side of the road. Two officers approached the vehicle, one on the driver's side and another on the passenger's side. The officer on the passenger side of the vehicle noticed that the passenger, Alvaro Dominguez Beltran was gripping a handgun in his right hand and began to raise the gun toward the driver's side window, where his fellow officer was engaged in a conversation with the driver. The officer shouted a warning toward his fellow officer and both officers attempted return to their vehicle for cover. As they returned, Beltran reached outside the vehicle and aimed the barrel of the gun in the direction of the officers. Both officers took out their weapons and instructed both men to exit the vehicle. The driver of the vehicle was taken into custody as Beltran fled on foot. Beltran has not been apprehended. Anyone with information on his whereabouts is encouraged to contact Crime Stoppers at (760) 341-STOP.
