WANTED FOR: Attempted murder, assault with a deadly weapon, gang crimes, child endangerment

DATE OF CRIME: Feb. 12, 2010
CRIME LOCATION: North Poe Street, Lake Elsinore, Calif.

The evening of Feb. 12, 2010, Lake Elsinore police were called to North Poe Street regarding a shooting and found a man who had been shot in the leg. Witnesses said there had been a party at that location attended by adults and children. Someone saw a gun in the waistband of an uninvited party crasher who was with Bobby Clinkscale. The uninvited men were asked why they had a gun at a party with children present and were asked to leave after which an argument ensued. The men left but later came back at which time the victim was shot. Clinkscale is also known as "P.B" or "Playboy". Two of the men who were with Clinkscale that night have been sentenced to prison for the shooting.
