About 6 p.m. on Jan. 16, 2007, a shooting happened at the Temecula Gardens apartment complex on Rancho California Road. Witnesses told police they heard several gunshots. Further investigation revealed that this was a gang-related shooting done by members of the Temecula-based Old Town Trece criminal street gang. One of those gang members, Jonathan Joaquin, who goes by the gang moniker of "Scrappy", is believed to have been involved. No one was hit by any of the shots but at least one round came within about a foot from a woman and her young son who were inside the complex.
