WANTED FOR: Kidnap for robbery, robbery and making criminal threats

DATE OF CRIME: July 4, 2011
CRIME LOCATION: Chevron station, 31699 Temecula Parkway, Temecula, Calif.

Just before 6 a.m. on July 4, 2011, Temecula police were called to the Chevron gas station, 31699 Temecula Parkway regarding a robbery. Witnesses said a man and a woman came into the business and the man, later identified as Troy Duncan, forced a victim at gunpoint from a back room to the front of the store. While Duncan held a gun and the woman pepper spray, the victims were ordered to empty the floor safe, which they did. The victims were then handcuffed and zip tied to prevent their escape and the robbers fled in a black Mitsubishi Galant with paper plates. That car, and one following it, were stopped by police a short time later and the woman involved in the robbery was arrested. Duncan, however, was not in either car.
